

Short Bio – Tez Brooks

Tez was a former law enforcement officer and police chaplain while raising two kids alone. He is now a full-time missionary and award-winning author, filmmaker, and international speaker, who coaches aspiring writers. Brooks has appeared in Guideposts, Power for Living, The Upper Room, CBN.com, Clubhouse, Focus on the Family, Cru.org and more. His editorials are featured regularly on Jesusfilm.org and seen by over 30k readers each month. You can learn more at TezBrooks.com

Long Bio – Tez Brooks

Tez is a former law enforcement officer and police chaplain while raising two kids alone. He is now a full-time missionary and award-winning author, filmmaker, and international speaker, who coaches aspiring writers.

He's been called thoughtful, approachable, and fun. Whether he's screenwriting another short film, working as a missionary journalist, or writing his next book, Tez's passion for God is evident.

As a multiple award-winning author, filmmaker, and international speaker, his work appears in Guideposts, Power for Living, The Upper Room, CBN.com, Clubhouse, Focus on the Family, Cru.org and more. His editorials are featured regularly on Jesusfilm.org and seen by over 30k readers each month. He is the president of two chapters for Word Weavers International. He and his wife serve as full-time missionaries. They have four children and live in Colorado Springs. You can learn more at TezBrooks.com.

Contact Info:

Tez Brooks
2650 Leoti Drive
Colorado Springs, CO 80922
(407)797-4408
tezwrites@gmail.com
<http://TezBrooks.com>

