

ENDORSEMENTS FOR DEBRIEFING

"Coming from a law enforcement family (my father and brothers finished their careers as police chiefs), I know Debriefing will prove to be a treasure to first responders and their families. What a gift to men and women who serve in capacities that may be the most challenging for believers in Christ."

Jerry B. Jenkins

New York Times* Bestseller and author of the Left Behind series and Precinct 11 Trilogy

"As a police chaplain, I found Debriefing is sure to be encouraging for those living out their faith in a stressful, under-appreciated career. From his experience as a former law enforcement officer, Brooks has a culturally competent way of taking first responder stories and redemptively applying them to God's Word. He comes alongside them with practical and positive truth. A must for any cop or those who love a cop."

Kevin Shive

Founder and Executive Director
Rocky Mountain Police and Fire Chaplains

"In a time when public servants are underappreciated, this is a book of tremendous hope! Debriefing should be required reading for every law enforcement individual, including spouses. Tez has lived in your world and speaks to your experiences with answers. I'm buying copies for my fellow chaplains."

Dr. Clarence Shuler

Sheriff's Chaplain and President/CEO Building Lasting Relationships

"Tez Brooks draws us in with his down-to-earth, frank, vulnerable tone. This book prompts readers to listen and watch for God in everything."

Susan King

Susan King Editorial Services and former editor for *The Upper Room

"I've pledged to continue speaking words of appreciation to First Responders. Now, Debriefing will be a tangible gift I can give that will provide these men and women with ongoing encouragement and gratitude. It's an inspired blessing!"

Jay Payleitner

Best-selling author of The Jesus Dare
and *What If God Wrote Your Bucket List?
